Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

Status

DETAILED ACTION

This Office Action is responsive to the applicant's amendment filed on July 14, 2004 and May 21, 2004.

Claims 76 and 77 have been amended. Claims 1-64 have been canceled (see Amendment filed on November 10, 2003). Accordingly, claims 65-77 are pending in this application.

Applicants' cooperation in correcting the informalities in the drawing and specification are appreciated.

Drawings

1. The drawings were received on May 21, 2004. These drawings are acceptable.

Terminal Disclaimer

2. The terminal disclaimer filed on May 21, 2004 disclaiming the terminal portion of any patent granted on this application has been reviewed and is NOT accepted. Applicant should use form PTO/SB/26 (09-06) to file a Terminal Disclaimer. The Application Number, Docket Number and the Attorney's Registration Number are missing on The Terminal Disclaimer form filed on May 21, 2004. The application being disclaimed has not been identified.

Double Patenting

The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. A nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting rejection is appropriate where the conflicting claims are not identical, but at least one examined application claim is not patentably distinct from the reference claim(s) because the examined application claim is either anticipated by, or would have been obvious over, the reference claim(s). See, e.g., In re Berg, 140 F.3d 1428, 46 USPQ2d 1226 (Fed. Cir. 1998); In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

Art Unit: 3748

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) or 1.321(d) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent either is shown to be commonly owned with this application, or claims an invention made as a result of activities undertaken within the scope of a joint research agreement.

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

3. Claims 71-75 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claim 105 of U.S. Patent No. 6,241,493. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because claim 105 of the patent recites a lever to control the fixed shaft and claim 71 of the instant application recites controlling by means of a controller of the fixed shaft. When an earlier issued patent claims a species or a more specific combination, and the later application then claims the genus or broader combination, the genus or broader combination is said to be "anticipated" by the species or more specific combination. In re Goodman, 229 USPQ2D 2010. Anticipation is the epitome of obviousness.

Allowable Subject Matter

4. Claims 65-70, 76 and 77 are allowed.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments filed on July 14, 2004 and May 21, 2004 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive as set forth above in the rejection above.

Conclusion

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
